4th BULLETTIN FROM G8-G20 MY SUMMIT 2010, CANADA

On the 27th of June, the Delegations reached the “Metro Conference Centre” in Toronto, for joining the activities of the G 20 meeting. After many safety's controls, the delegated went to the “red zone” of the building, where the Leaders of the G 20 States were set.

In the “red zone” there was the possibility to meet, for just one delegated of the G 20 nations, the Leader of his own country. Elena Delle Site, as italian delegated, had the opportunity to meet Mr. Silvio Berlusconi, the President of the Italian Council. With Mr. Berlusconi in person, Elena talked about the education for the political activity, the importance of the student associations, and the necessity to turn-over the characters of the political stage, with younger and motivated persons. Mr. Berlusconi agreed with Elena and shown all his appreciation for the activities of the delegations.

After the meeting, the President of Canada, Stephen Harper, started his speech trying to give the concrete conclusions to the meeting, for the future of the planet.
